A number of radical matters are to be brought up and in investigation is to be demanded of he army graft scandals, partially uncovered by the exposures at Vlad

If the radicals of the Duma carry out their intentions, it is expected that trouble will result among the various wings in the assembly and disorders will occur in the Duma it

WIND TOO MUCH FOR AVIATORS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27. — Aviators Johnstone and Hoxey, who made flights today from the grounds of the international aero meet in competition for altitude, encountered a twenty-five-mile-an-hour wind. against which they were unable to irive their biplanes. Instead of deconding as they wished, they were driven backwards by the wind, unable to make headway and afraid to attempt to turn.

Johnstone, who made a record for altitude of 7300 feet on Bucsday, was carried backwards for fifty-five miles before he could make a land-ing. Hoxey managed to come down after he had been driven for twentyfive miles. The latter claims that his aerometer registered a height of 0000 feet, but no official record of this was obtaned, and Johnstone still holds the world's record, made Tues
